

CRITICAL MESS (Lebbink)

Wouldn't it be nice
If everything was still the same
And when you'd open up your eyes
Life was still a friendly game

Once happy times
Precious moments, perfect synergy
Based on tainted lies
And bad omens, wasted energy

You looked into her eyes
To see if you were mistaken
It made you gasping for words
Now both you and the news were breaking

You smash the bottle on the wall
Wondering why she doesn't move at all
And you never felt so small
In the dark
So you yell __ Slightly insane

You take the car and wreck the fence
Now you know you've blown your only chance
If you only had dared to dance
Like a shark
You'd have smelled __ The blood in the rain

guitar solo

Although opposites attract
There's too much happening within They violently interact
It's life or death beneath the skin end

Es bailar con la muerte
Es amor, amor, amor
Es demasiado fuerte
Dolor, dolor, dolor
Ay, mi madre!
