

XHAIR (Lebbink)

verse

After a ll we're just a silly affair
Astronomically spoken we're less than a x-hair
Life is merely a pathetic excuse
Just a storage space for atoms that ran out of use

refrain

Such a silly affair
HMMMMMM, like if we would care

verse

Given the fact that we were not meant to be Evolution was just a bad idea
After all we're a pathetic affair
Destroying a planet, which is hurled onto nowhere

hook

So smile if you want to Cry if you care
And me I've been speaking to disciples

-guitar solo-

refrain

HMMMMMM, such a silly affair
HMMMMMM, like if I should care

verse

Most of us will be destroyed
I've got a place on board with some humanoids
We'll leave this planet on The Mighty Ark
On an interstellar trip into the dark

hook

So cry if you want to Smile, I don't care
Cause me, I've been waiting for Their Arrival

-here we go-

-spoken-

There will be an empty space
A void that once housed a human race
Remains of life will be dispersed
And scattered to the outskirts of this universe

...And so it starts again...
